

The Gift Tsa'Chi Creek

Sky meets sea
Yellowlegs march
Earth and tree
Wolves, be free
Fire flickers and
Waves retreat
In the land of the Hesquiaht

The black bear marches
His lonely path
Sharing his presence with
New friends in town

The eagle perches, glares, and twitches
Stalking salmon, chum and pink
The creek's bank holds a family dear
To new friends in town

The heart is big in this
Lovely bay
Just passing through
Will light my way
